

BSGIE RESEARCH GRANT

Objective: to reward the best research project in the field of gastrointestinal diagnostic or therapeutic endoscopy by young endoscopists practicing in Belgium.

Amount: 5000 euro

Rules:

1. The BSGIE grant aims at rewarding the best research project in the field of gastrointestinal diagnostic or therapeutic endoscopy.
2. The grant will be awarded annually. The Board of the BSGIE determines its amount. It will be announced during the BSGIE session at the Belgian Week of Gastroenterology.
3. The applicants must be member of the BSGIE at the time of the grant application. The research must be performed in Belgium. The maximum age for application is 40 years.
4. The grant may not be awarded to a project already awarded by another grant. The grant may not be divided, but it may reward a teamwork. It will be rewarded to the main applicant with written consent of the co-investigators.
5. The grant application should be written in English, with a summary in English. It must precise the aim, material and methods, and 2 to 3 pages of comments underlining the potential impact of the research. The main applicant should also include an updated curriculum vitae.
6. The jury consists of the BSGIE Board members. Applicants who are also member of the Board are excluded from voting. The grant may not be attributed if the jury estimates that no candidate is eligible.
7. Half of the amount of the grant is awarded at the time of presentation of the results of the research project during a BSGIE meeting (BSGIE session at the Belgian Week of Gastroenterology or BSGIE annual meeting). The second half of the amount of the grant is awarded at the time of publication of the results as a manuscript. The manuscript should include the BSGIE grant in the acknowledgments.
8. The grant application must be addressed to the Secretaries of the BSGIE before 31 December of each year, together with a curriculum vitae of the main applicant at info@bsgie.org.
